

Town of Pelham v. AFSCME Council 93, Local 3657, Pelham Police Employees, Decision No. 2005-035 (Case No. P-0775-1).

Town claimed that union committed unfair labor practice by demanding that town implement arbitrator's award ordering reinstatement of discharged employee. PELRB denied town's complaint finding that town committed unfair labor practice by refusing to implement arbitrator's award and that evidence was insufficient to show that award violated public policy.
