

White Mountain Regional Education Association, NEA-New Hampshire v. White Mountain Regional School Board, Decision No. 2005-044 (Case No. T-0210-15).

Union claimed that district committed unfair labor practice by sending “renewal with reservation” letters to teachers, placing them on improvement plan, untimely evaluating them, giving insufficient notice of discipline, and unilaterally altering evaluation language. PELRB ordered district to rescind issued letters and expunge personnel records finding that district’s actions constituted breach of parties’ collective bargaining agreement.
