

AFSCME Local 365, Nashua Custodial Employees v. Nashua School District, Decision No. 2005-137 (Case No. A-0424-40).

Union claimed that district committed unfair labor practice by implementing change in custodial shift hours. PELRB dismissed union's complaint finding that management right to determine hours and schedules of work set forth in parties' contract preserved for district unilateral discretion to adjust employee work schedules during term of contract.
