

State Employees Association, SEIU Local 1984 v. New Hampshire Judicial Branch, Decision No. 2005-157 (Case No. S-0427-1).

Union filed petition to certify unit consisting of all full-time court monitors in judicial branch. Judicial branch objected claiming that court monitors in family division and probate court did not share community of interest with rest of proposed unit. PELRB granted union's petition finding that all court monitors, including family and probate court monitors, shared significant community of interest.
