

Hampton Fire Department Supervisory Association Local 3017, IAFF, AFL-CIO, CLC v. Town of Hampton and Town of Hampton v. Hampton Fire Department Supervisory Association Local 3017, IAFF, AFL-CIO, CLC, Decision No. 2006-011 (Case No. F-0127-7 & Case No. F-0127-8).

Union claimed that town committed unfair labor practice by laying off two employees when there was no lack of funds and failing to lay off the least senior employee. Town claimed that union violated contract by pursuing grievances. PELRB dismissed union's complaint finding that, as to lay offs, town had discretion in allocation of its financial resources and that, as to failure to lay off, PELRB lacked jurisdiction as contract provided for arbitration proceedings. PELRB dismissed town's complaint finding that it does not present controversy as union did not pursue grievances to arbitration.
