

State Employees Association of New Hampshire, SEIU Local 1984 v. State of New Hampshire, Department of Corrections, Decision No. 2006-024 (Case No. S-0376-16).

Union claimed that state committed unfair labor practice by failing to comply with arbitration award. PELRB directed state to comply with arbitrator's award finding that award was enforceable and binding upon parties. PELRB dismissed portion of union's complaint finding that union's evidence was insufficient to show that state's failure to comply with award constituted violation of RSA 273-A:5, I (c).
