

Portsmouth NH Police Patrolmen's Union, NEPBA Local 11 v. Portsmouth Police Commission, Decision No. 2006-109 (Case No. P-0709-24).

Union claimed that commission committed unfair labor practice by questioning officer, who represented other employee as union steward during disciplinary meeting with employer, regarding internal investigation involving that employee. PELRB denied union's complaint finding that there was insufficient evidence to find that commission violated RSA 273-A:5, I by questioning union steward.
