PRESS RELEASE

STATE OFFICIALS WORK CLOSELY WITH MEMORIAL RIDE ORGANIZERS TO ENSURE SAFETY

CONCORD, N.H. – State safety officials met today with the organizers of the Randolph memorial ride and state and local partners to coordinate the memorial ride taking place Saturday.

“Public safety is our top priority,” State Police Colonel Christopher Wagner said. “We’re working in close collaboration with the ride organizers and state and local safety officials to help ensure the memorial ride is safe and successful. It’s incredibly important that travelers do their part by remembering to obey the rules of the road and share the road with riders.”

The finalized route will be announced on Friday. Riders should stay informed throughout the ride and can get the latest route, weather and safety information by following NH_HSEM on Twitter and @NH.HSEM on Facebook.
